

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. ## PREFACE TO THE FOURTH EDITION.

BORN on April 5, 1837, in the year of Queen Victoria's accession, of which the whole nation is now celebrating the Jubilee, ALGERNON CHARLES SWINBURNE to-day attains the jubilee or fiftieth year of his own life, and may be therefore claimed as an essentially and exclusively Victorian poet. Of the half-century of life now completed, more than a quarter of a century has been devoted to fruitful and noble work in song and to work hardly less noble and fruitful in the field of criticism.

In issuing this new edition, revised throughout and brought down to date, of a bibliographical record originally published some four years ago, the Compiler cannot deny himself the pleasure of associating with the date the coincidence, not only of a double jubilee, but also of a double birthday.

Long distant may the day be when this record, already so goodly, can be made complete in a final sense, and collectors of the books of our greatest Victorian poet and critic be able to echo Lord Melbourne's callous expression of grateful relief that they can bind him up!

As on former occasions the Compiler invites the co-operation of literary correspondents and will be grateful to any one who will correct an error or supply an omission.

THE
Bibliography of Swinburne.

1857-1858.

UNDERGRADUATE PAPERS. Oxford: W. Mansell, High-street ;
London: Whittaker and Co. 1857-1858, 8vo., pp. 186.

Edited by Mr. (now Professor) John Nichol (whose historical drama of Hannibal was noticed by Mr. Swinburne, in 1872, in the Fortnightly Review). The chief contributors were George Rankine Luke, the late T. H. Green, Professor Albert Venn Dicey, Mr. George Birkbeck Hill (author of "Johnson and his Circle"), and Algernon Charles Swinburne. Mr. Swinburne's contributions, five in number, included a very amusing parody, The Monomaniac's Tragedy, the first Canto of a poem entitled "Queen Yseult," a paper on Marlowe and Webster, &c. &c.

CONGREVE, WILLIAM, short prose article, signed "A. C. S.," in The Imperial Dictionary of Universal Biography, a series of original memoirs of distinguished men of all ages and all nations, edited by John Francis Waller, LL.D. London: William Mackenzie [1857], vol i., p. 979.

An entirely different paper from that which appeared twenty years afterwards (1877), over the same initials, in the Ninth Edition of the Encyclopædia Britannica. (Vide infra, p. 24.)

1860-1861.
